Mr . Howland Wood ,

156 th. Street, West of Broadway,

New - York .

Dear Sir,

J thank you affectionately for you kindness to have sent the copy of your highly interesting and important work: coinage of the West - Indies, very instructive for me.

J beg your pardon that J am indepted to the society with the amount of membership. But it has been impossible since the war to send postal-order or enregistered letter, because post-office does not accept the same. As soon as it can be done J will settle this affair.

With best thanks for all your kindness J beg to remain, Dear Sir,

Very Respectfully Yours

Heinrich Hirsch
